SW 580 - Social Welfare in Ireland
Enhance your college experience with education abroad! Join us in May 2019 as we travel to Ireland and Northern Ireland to learn of the Troubles, the political and religious conflict that has resulted in a divided Ireland. Aspects of social justice, and reconciling the legacy of oppression, are sure to interest every social work student.

• Hike the breathtaking northern coastline
• Hear from former political prisoner regarding reconciliation efforts and disarming militants
• Tour the many walls that separate Belfast today
• Discover the charm of the Irish

“The trip had a profound impact on me personally, professionally and academically and I would highly advise and recommend this trip.”
- Steven Buchanan, Summer 2018 participant

One of the many murals across Belfast

Join us in Summer 2019!
For more information, email kalebennen@uky.edu.