

Weekend Hybrid MSW Schedule

Distance Learning Benefits

Flexibility and Impact

- Complete your coursework through a dynamic online learning platform
- Attend on-campus sessions four Saturdays a semester
- Complete clinical field placements in supervised settings

Convenience and Effectiveness

- Research studies indicate distance learning is as effective as traditional instructional methods when both the use of technology and faculty interaction are combined

Affordability

- Save money on transportation and parking costs
- No weekly child/dependent-care costs

UK College of Social Work Weekend Clinical MSW Schedule Now accepting applications for Summer 2018 Advanced Standing Applicants Only

The University of Kentucky College of Social Work is offering a Distance Learning-based Masters of Social Work Degree Curriculum Model. This model offers working students the option to earn their degree while maintaining full-time employment. The second cohort of the part-time Advanced Standing MSW program model will be offered starting in Summer 2016 on Saturdays.

Saturday face-to-face classes are held on the Lexington campus monthly. All other class time is conducted conveniently on-line. This curriculum model can be completed within a two year timeframe.

For more information contact:

Steven Adkins, MSW Advisor

Main Campus-Lexington

Steven.Adkins@uky.edu

Advanced Standing Eligibility:

Overall GPA: 3.0

Social Work GPA: 3.5

BASW/BSW/BSSW within last 5 years

Complete Graduate School Application

Deadline to apply: February 1, 2018

